M. Garrison, of New York, of $250,000, and the purchase, by the old line, of the Steamer Geo. Leary; The old line is now in possession of the Baltimore and Norfolk routes.

The Great Convention,—Reading of the Address.

Philadelphia, Aug. 17, M.

Many of the delegates of the Convention left last evening, and the balance will leave to day.

The Proceedings throughout were most harmonious. There was not a single event to mar the good feeling.

The address (not the resolutions) was written by Mr. Raymond. It is merely the resolutions elaborated. During its reading, for a time the most breathless ilence prevailed. The President requested delegates and spectators to manifest no sign of approval or to make other demostrations until the reading was completed.—This secured quiet until the reader arrived at the the folloging paragraph: "And the ten millions of Americans, who live in the Sonth, would be unworthy citizens of a free commonwealth, degenerate sons of our heroic ancestors, unfit ever to become guardians of the rights and principles bequeathed to us by the fathers and founders of the Republic, if they could accept, with uncomplaining submission, the humiliation thus sought to be imposed upon them." The entire audience here broke forth in an unrestrained burst of applause which lasted several minutes. At the conclusion of this enthusiasm, a demand was made that the passage be read again, which was assented to, and again the applause broke forth with redoubled effect.

The Press clerk gave a splendid banquet to members of the Press last night, at which Radicals and Southerners fraternize and hilarity prevailed.

Printer's devils are generally great ladies men, notwithstanding they have a very hard name. Some time ago one of these hard named fellows and his lady love were taking an evening stroll, and as they were walking along, chatting briskly upon the numerous topics of the day she suddenly caught his hand and looking smilingly in his face, asked—

"Do you know why I cannot get religion?

"No my dear, I do not."

"It is because I love the devil."

What followed is not recorded; but our Devil who is posted on such matters, says it is probable the devil kissed an angel just about that time.

CHRONOLOGY.—The New York Watchman speaks in high terms of Col. E. G. Haywood's forthcoming work on Chronology. It says:

"We have examined the manuscript. It is a treatise at large upon the subject of Chronology and upon cognate branches of study. It will form an admirable outline of history, and furnish a vast fund of information. It is not a dry skeleton of mere facts and figures. It is an elaborate digest of all that is important upon the subject of the relation of facts to time, and many pages will be read with the interest inspired by a romance. It will be an excellent basis for historical instruction in our universities and higher schools, and a manual for literary and scholarly men in every department. We shall look with interest for the appearace of this volume, and hope that it will soon be given to the public."

APPEAL.

To the Women of the South:

The end we propose is the cause of the South. It has neither party nor section, nor division. The obligations of the survivors to the memory of the martyrs of the war address the South as one family, wherein, though there be degrees of affliction and bereavement, none are without sorrow and grief. It is not, however, to hearts crushed by personal sorrows, so much as the gratitude cherished for noble deeds by noble men, we appeal. With this, the Southern heart throbs with one impulse, and is ready to testify its inextinguishable sympathy.

It shall be our endeavor to rescue from the oblivion, to which they are passing, the graves of the great host which perished in the war, and sleep undistinguished in our cemetery. Their memory history will trnsmit from age to age, propounding, without number, illustrious examples from which the noblest of every age may catch new inspiration.—We propose the humbler tribute, yet one more touching to relatives and friends (and even to the general heart) that of identifying with durable monuments the ground where sleep the honored dead, tempting thither by its becoming habitude the countless throng who would do homage to such dead.

Our designation is the "Hollywood Memorial Association of Richmond," pledged to apply the means which may be provided, to the permanent protection and adornment of the graves of the Confederate dead interred in the Hollywood Cemetery.

Those contributing to the Association will be enrolled as members, and contributions may be remitted to the Treasurer, Mrs. Dr. Barney, and letters addressed to the Corresponding Secretary, Mrs. Dr. Bolton. Information will be furnished at all times by the President, and by any member of the Memorial Committee.

Mrs. WM H. MACFARLAND, Pres'dt.

Memorial Committee:—Mrs. J. H. Caskie, Mrs. Dr. Barney, Mrs. C. McGruder, Mrs. James Lyons, Mrs. Geo. L. Bidgood, Mrs. J. E. Dabney, Mrs. Barksdale, Mrs. Dr. Cullen, Mrs. J. A. Cowardin.

DR. MAGGIEL:—I take my pen to write you of my great relief, and that the awful pain in my side has left me at last—thanks to your medicine. Oh, doctor, how thankful I am that I can get some sleep.—I can never write it enough I thank you again and again, and am sure that you are really the friend of all sufferrers. I could not help writing to you, and hope you will not take it amiss.

JAMES MYERS,

This is to certify that I was discharged from the army with Chronic Diarrhœa, and have been cured by Dr. Maggiel's Pills.

WILSON HARVEY,
N. Y. April 7. 1766 27 Pitt street

The following is an interesting case of a man employed in an iron Foundry, who, in pouring melted iron into a flask that was damp and wet, caused an explosion. The melted iron was thrown around and on him in a perfect shower, and he was burnt dreadfully. The following certificate was given to me by him about eight weeks after the accident.

New York, Jan. 11, 1866.

My name is Jacob Hardy; I am an Iron Founder; I was badly burnt by hot iron in November last; my burns healed, but I had a running sore on my leg that would not heal; I tried Maggiel's Salve, and it cured me in a few weeks. This is all true and any body can now see me at Jackson's Iron Works, 2nd Avenue.

JACOB HARDY.

Extracts from Various Letters:

"I had no appetite; Maggiel's Pills gave me a hearty one."

"Your Pills are marvelous,"

"I send for another box, and keep them in the house."

"Dr. Maggiel has cured my headache that was chronic."

"I gave half of one of your pills to my babe for cholera morbus. The dear little thing got well in a day."

"My nausea of a morning is now cured."

"Your box of Maggiel's Salve cured me of noises in the head. I rubbed some of your Salve behind my ears and the noise left."

"Send me two boxes I want one for a poor family."

"I enclose a dollar; your price is 25 cents, but the medicine to me is worth a dollar."

"Send me five boxes of your pills."

"Let me have three boxes of your Salve by return mail."

I have over 200 such Testimonials as this, but want of space compels me to conclude

PERPETUAL CALENDAR.

COMBINING the Julian, or old Style, and the Gregorian, or New Style, of reckoning time.

Dates from the birth of Christ to the year 3200 of our Era, readily, and accurately found.

Neatly and plainly printed on Cards 10x14 inches, suitable for

Counting House, Library, or Office,

Each Card contains "Directions for Using," and "Explanatory Remarks." These give a brief, but comprehensive, account of the Julian Calendar, and of the Astronomical causes which led to its change.

Every reader of History; every professional man; every merchant; every mechanic and every student should have a copy.

One copy furnishes the purchaser with an Almanac, of infallible accuracy, for the past years of our Era, for the present year and for more than thirteen hundred years to come.

TESTIMONIALS.

Prof. CHAS. PHILLIPS, of the University of N. C., ond of the ablest mathematicians of the country, thus speaks of it: "It is a thing of beauty: simple exclusive and accurate. Every one who refers to dates ought to have a copy of it; the man of business for the present; the student of history, for the past; and the dabbler in phrophesy, for the future."

Gov. SWAIN, President of the University, says:—"I entirely concur with Prof Phillips in the views he entertains concerning the value of your Almanac."

Rev. M. A. CURTIS, D D, a clergyman well known for high attainments in literature and science, thus writes of it: "I have examined your calendar with considerable care, verifying dates and days in several centuries, including the first, and have been unable to detect any error in either the Julian or Gregorian tables. So far as I can discover, the scheme is perfect. It seems to me to merit the attention of every one who has any use for a perpetual calendar."

From Lieut. Gen. D. H Hill, late of C. S. Army.

"I have just examined the Perpetual Calendar, of which Jas. Rumley is the inventor, and you the proproprietor. It contains all that an Almanac for the year has, except 'look-out-for-rain-about-this-time.' In addition, it is a complete Almanac from the birth of Christ to 3200 A. D.—about as far forward as most of us care to investigate. I have found it very useful in verifying some dates of battles, about which I was doubtful. In some cases, I remembered the day of the week, and not of the month. In others, I had forgotten, the day of the week, and had remembered that of the month. * * * * * *

The Calendar, as the invention of a native North Carolinian and the property of a brother soldier, shall always be kept upon my desk."

One half of all the nett profits of sales in each State of the South, for one year, to be appropriated to the use of the Ladies' Memorial Association of that State, to be expended as they may direct.

Railroad and Express Companies should furnish all their offices with this valuable Calendar.

Booksellers and others are invited to correspond with me on the subject.

AGENTS to sell it wanted.

Very soon, the Proprietor will be prepared to supply the demand in every locality in the country.

Copies of the Calendar can be found for sale in Goldsboro, N. C., at the office of the Daily News.

Single copies 50 cents; $35 per hundred.

THE PHILADELPHIA CONVENTION.

For months past the people of this great Republic have been looking forward with undisguised anxiety to the assembling of this body. It was designed to be essentially a representative Convention, coming immediately from the people of this unhappy country, reflecting their views and feelings, and determining for them the line of policy best calculated to extricate them from the hideous ruin that threatened to engulf them. This Convention has met and adjourned. No public body was ever charged with such responsibilities. It was charged with the future of a country just emerged from a great civil war—drenched in blood and staggering under an enormaus burden of taxation; eleven of the States almost annihilated; the whole country threatenud with an entire subversion of its form of government, and trembling in the throes of another revolutionary struggle. In point of intellect, the assembly was fully competent to discharge its great obligations to us and to posterity. We find upon its rolls the names of many men who were prominent in the councils of the nation when it was great, prosperous and happy. From the length and breadth of the land, they came together a mighty host; they came from the shadow of Warren's Monument upon Bunker Hill, and met men whose homes were within sound of the guns of Fort Moultre, and in sight of Kings Mountain and Guilford Court House; from the Atlantic coast and from the shores of the far off Pacific; from the great Lakes, and from the restless waters of the Gulf, they came animated with one hope and filled with one purpose; to secure to us and to posterity the undisturbed enjoyment of that perfect liberty that is the birth right of the citizen and the spirit of the Constitution. Men who had fought each other for years upon the field of battle, or in the areana of politics, forgot their sectional animosities; surrendered their party predjudices, and were fused and blended in one harmonious body of national patriots.

Their proceedings have not reached us in full, but enough appears to warrant the hope that we have passed the great crisis of our fate. A great National Conservative party has been organized, whose platform is declared to be those pure Republican principles, upon which our government was ever administered previous to the accession of Radical Revolutionists. A stirring appeal has been made to the whole American people in behalf of this party, and these principles; and from the unbounded enthusiasm, and the single hearted devotion displayed by the Convention, we confidently expect the ultimate overthrow of that party, which has been for so long, the scourge, and the bane of the country. We give to-day the latest reports that have come to us of the doings of the Convention. The reader will find nothing that will shock his sectional pride, however sensitive. There are no reflections upon the Southern States, no chidings, no reproaches; but on the contrary they breathe a lofty, magnanimous conciliatory spirit. Such a spirit as will do more to secure to the National Government the alienated affection and support of the Southern people than all the terrors of military rule, with its hundred thousand bayonets.

There is but one omission that we regret in these proceedings: we are somewhat disappointed to find no explicit denunciation of the test oath. This is the most odious form which Radical tyranny has ever assumed, and so long as it is in force there can be no representation for the South in Congress. No man able to take this oath is or can be a representative of our people. But as we before said the proceedings have not reached us in full and there may be some enunciation of principle from which its contemplated repeal may be inferred. At all events it were better to have declared explicitly against it and so to have made the issue with the Radical Congress plain in all its features. It may distract the party in the Canvass upon which so much depends. It was wrong to leave it an open question. Hesitation is the fruitful parent of misfortune.

MAJOR GENERAL SLOCUM ON RADICALISM.—The distingnished Major General Slocum, who is spoken of as Secretary of War, after Mr. Stanton, wrote a letter in reply to an invitation to attend the soldiers' Convention in Pennsylvania, from which we make the following extract:

"There exists among us a political party, which, for the purpose of retaining power, has prevented the complete restoration of the Union, which we understand to be the sole object of the war; a party which would hold a portion of the States in subjection, teaching the rising generation in both sections lessons of jealousy and hatred, instead of seeking to make them forget the bitter past, and become, as they must become—if our Union is ever to be of value—one people in interest and feeling.

"Let those who tought for a restoration of the Union now come forward and vote for it, and our victory is assured.

Very respectfully &c.,
H. W. SLOCUM."

EUROPEAN AFFAIRS.

In the midst of the interest excited by the proceedings of the Philadelphia Convention, the public seems to have lost sight for a time of European affairs. The following article from the New York Times is well calculated to recall attention to so interesting a subject:

At no period, either before or during the sharp and decisive German conflict, has the situation in Europe presented a darker aspect than it does now; and unless we are altogether deceived, the grand contest for position, for influence, and for permanent political ascendancy in Europe is only just opening.

The quarrel, from being primarily a German, or, in a measure, a civil conflict, bids fair to develop into a Gallo Prussian war—ostensibly for the revision of a boundary line marked out barely fifty years ago, but in reality for the status and dignity of leadership in Continental Europe. The demands for territorial compensation submitted to Prussia by the French Cabinet are to be met, according to a semi-official Berlin journal, by a prompt refusal. These demands the Prussian organ—which speaks for Bismarck—characterizes as "absurd." It reminds the Government of the Emperor that in the German quarrel France has had nothing at stake. And the tone in which this is said as clearly indicates defiance as any semi official utterance from Prussia since the conflict began.

Italy, meanwhile, will apparently cease to continue a party to the quarrel, by the cession of Venetia, to which the Government of Vienna has consented; the term of the armistice between that Power and Austria having been extended. In that result, the new conflict would be one involving the question of German solidarity and strength as against French aggrandizement and modern Cæsarism. In such a contest Bismarck would doubtless carry with him far more of the sympathies of liberal men throughout the world than he has done hitherto.

BLACKBERRIES.

The Greensboro' Patriot says one hundred and sixty-one barrels of dried blackberries were shipped from High Point to New-York last week.

It will be remembered that we called the attention of the readers of this paper, at the beginning of the blackberry season, to the importance of saving this fruit; but up to this time we have heard of no one in this county who acted upon the suggestion. We think there has been none brought to this market. And yet we see that the people of Davidson, Stokes, Forsythe, Guilford and Randolph counties, have, as usual, made money by taking care of the berries. The one hundred and sixty-one barrels, above mentioned, were shipped in one week from one depot. We learn that it was but a small amount as compared to the whole business done in this crop in that part of the State. The aggregate, counted in dollars, has already reached, as we are told, about forty thousand. This is a sum not to be despised; and when we consider it as the product of the labor of women and children who could not find more profitable work, it shows how important it is that people should improve opportunities for bettering their condition. Forty thousand dollars! How many comforts that sum will secure to those who gathered it, berry by berry!

Carolina Watchman.

☞ The Greensboro' Patriot says about 200 emigrants, among them a few knobs of the "bureau," started from that place Tuesday morning last, bound for the State of Indiana. They were citizens of Guilford and adjoining counties. This is the second or third hegira, says the Patriot, unthe superintendance of a gentleman who makes it his profession to "pilot 'em through."—Ib

☞ The Raleigh Standard is trying to get out Gen. Dockery as a candidate against Gov. Worth. The Standard thinks the people have forgotten how it talked about Dockery when he was a candidate for Governor against Bragg. Then he was not fit to be Governor; now he is just the man for the place. —Ib

Gen. Dix's Speech.—To say of the admirable speech of General Dix, at the opening of the great Convention, that it matched the occasion, is the highest praise it deserves. In length, in the selection of topics, in tone, temper, and language, we can think of no word which so truly characterizes it as the word fit. It was not a mere speech of form, a mere exhibition of decorum on the part of a presiding officer who did not wish to seem blunt or unceremonious in taking his seat, as is the case with most efforts of this kind. On the contrary, it was persuasive, convincing; it sought to make a definite impression, and succeeded in making it. Logical without the dryness of argumentative forms, it rendered the absurdity of withholding representation from the recovered States so apparent by mere force of luminous statement, as to make any supplementary argument seem superfluous. Statesmanlike views are presented with a skill and simplicity which adapts them to popular apprehension, and which grounds new hope on the fact that the truth on which our political system rests can be made so intelligible.—N. Y. World.

Feeling in Washington.—Washington, August 14.—The proceedings of the Philadelphia Convention to-day have, by the harmony and conciliatory spirit displayed, afforded much gratification to the President and the friends of his policy of one country, one flag, one Union of equal States, and inspired them with additional confidence in the success of this constitutional movement. They are jubilant to-night, and have faith in the complete success of the Convention, and of the restoration policy, which it is assembled to sustain and carry forward to final triumph.

☞ The valuable corn and flouring mills and the Foundry of Messrs. J. M. Walker & Clarkson, near Danville, were burned down last Sunday night.

It was the work of an incendiary—the second attempt—the first having failed.—Ib

Stealing money, chickens, &c., is now called "Butlerizing." Stealing horses and mules, "Shermanizing." There were two horses "Shermanized" from this place last Wednesday night, and two valuable mules from the Sou. Ex. Co. at Morganton, a few nights before. Somebody is going to get dreadfully hurt unless these operations are put a stop to, and but one will be sorry when it happens. —Ib

Africa, it seems, intends to follow the example of the other four grand divisions of the globe, and get up a war. In Abyssynia, a country south of Egypt, a battle is imminent between the King, Theodore II, and a chieftain named Gubarsha, who aspires to the throne. The latter, on account of the despotic rule of the King, has secured many adherents and his army quite as powerful as that of the King. Both sides are making great preparations for the battle, and the armies number at least 150,000.

POSTSCRIPT

A Plan to Restore the Mail Service of the South.

TO THE PEOPLE OF VIRGINIA, NORTH Carolina, South Carolina, Georgia, Alabama, Mississippi, Louisiana, Tennessee, Arkansas, Missouri, Florida, and Texas—Having recently returned from the South, I am well aware of the great inconvenience to which the Southern people are subjected on account of lack of mail facilities. This is, to a very great extent, owing to the oath with which contractors are required to comply, there being but few men at the South who can take it. Having conferred with the proper authorities, (and obtained their approval,) I find that this difficulty can be obviated and the mails established upon every route at the South, and at the highest rates admissible for the people of either North or South. Being a National Union man, (late of North Carolina,) by which I mean one that is alike opposed to the heresies of the Extremists North and South, I can take this oath and thus form the connecting link between the Southern people and the United States Government. This I propose to do and to establish mails on every route at the South now destitute of them as follows:

Any person who is desirous of becoming a contractor will address me at once, stating the route or routes for which he wishes to become contractor, (stating the extreme points to be connected, which of course, should be on some route heretofore established,) I will then contract for such route or routes in my own name, and let the parties have them at a discount of 2½ per cent. on the annual amount for carrying the mails on said route or routes. This arrangement will secure the route to the sub contractor substantially the same as if it were his own contract, and frequently at a better price than could be obtained in the usual way where there is so much competition.

My percentage or mileage, as above, will not be required until the end of the first quarter.

The first applicant for a Route or Routes, judging by the postmark on the letter of application, will have the preference, other things being equal.

Persons when making application should send a guaranty signed by at least two guarantors * The guaranty should be certified to by a postmaster or a judge of a court of record† Applicants can, if they desire, obtain blank forms, printed by the Government, by addressing either the undersigned or the 2d Assistant Postmaster General, Geo. W. McClellan, who will take pleasure in giving all the information that may be desired.

As I am recognized as principal in this matter, payment must necessarily come through me. I can however give the parties drafts on the sixth Auditor of the United States Treasury for all the quarter for which the contract may have been awarded, and these can be presented one at a time as they fall due, and the money drawn substantially the same as if the parties were bona fide contractors. In this case the expenses [two and a half per cent] should be paid by or before the expiration of the first quarter after the commencement of service; otherwise payment for this quarter will be drawn by the undersigned, expenses deducted, and the residue, with drafts for the remaining quarters, forwarded to the parties carrying the mails. If persons prefer, I will draw and forward their money at the end of every quarter, without extra charge. I would however prefer that they accept the drafts, in order that they may have the matter in their hands.

It would be a source of much gratification to me if I be the means of extending mail facilities to the Southern people. Their attention is therefore respectfully called to this matter. As I am not required to cut down, through competion it would doubtless be to their interest to make speedy application, before any modification is made in the test oath, in order that they may obtain these Routes at the highest rates admissible.

Persons confiding to my care may rely upon fair dealing. All accepted bids will be entered upon the books of the Post Office Department, where they will be open for inspection.

All letters relative to the foregoing should contain a stamp for answer, and be addressed to

BRYAN TYSON,
Box 1000, Washington, D. C.

*FORM FOR A GUARANTY.

The undersigne , residing at——, State of ——, undertake that if the bid for carrying the mail on the route No. ——, [if the No be not given it is not essential] be accepted by the Postmaster General, the bidder shall enter into the required obligation, or contract, to perform the contract with good and sufficient sureties.

Dated: ——

†FORM FOR CERTIFICATE.

The undersigned, postmaster at ——, State of ——, certifies under his oath of office that he is acquainted with the above guarantors and knows them to be men of property and able to make good their guaranty.

Dated: —— [2t-52

☞ If it is not convenient for an acting postmaster to fill out the certificate, an old one will answer.

☞ Editors throughout the South will please give the foregoing two insertions and forward bill with a copy of paper to the undersigned. Those giving two or more additional insertions will be entitled to a copy of my book "A Ray of Light," the price of which by mail is $2.00.

☞ The attention of the press, and particularly of those papers wich are publishing Mr. Tyson's "Plan to Restore the Mail Service of the South," is called to the following card, lately received from him:

To Persons Desiring Mail Routes.

Persons who are deterred from making application for mail routes, thinking from what is set forth in my advertisement that the terms will be too low, should hesitate no longer but make immediate application and see if I cannot do considerably better for them than is set forth. I have done this for some and can also for others; therefore make application at once.

Editors who have inserted my advertisement will please make the following change. I desire the clause "which will be about 25 cents." * * * "a tri-weekly mail" erased.

Editors throughout the South will confer a favor by publishing foregoing.

All applications relative to having post routes changed, post-offices established or postmasters appointed, will receive prompt attention by being addressed to Gone Up.—A negro, some four or five miles from this place, killed one of his fellow beings last Wednesday by shooting. It appears that the boy having the gun did not know that it was loaded, and to frighten and have fun at the expense of the deceased, thought he would 'snap his gun at him,' which he did, and one negro was killed and another badly frightened.—Goldsboro' News.

OUR BED-ROOMS—SINGULAR STATEMENT IN RELATION TO CHOLERA.—Dr. T. S. Bell an old and eminent physician of Louisville, a man of vast acquirements and wide observation and experience, said the other day at a meeting of the Louisville College of Physicians and Surgeons:

"The cause of cholera has never risen to any great height perpendicularly, except when it was forced up. Naturally it cannot affect the second story of any good residence. Heights have always been, when properly guarded secure refuge from cholera. Elevated buildings or high walls have always been exempt, while counterminious places were ravaged. Moscow has repeatedly been invaded in the quarters along the low banks of the Moskwa, but there has never been a case of the disease in the elevated Kremlin. The Monasteries with high walls in Italy, France and Spain have with great uniformity, escaped the disease.

"The cause of cholera acts alone at night and upon sleeping persons. No amount of exposure in the worst localities of the disease imperils the wakeful, movingi ndividual. I have seen hundreds of instances of this fact without one aberation from the statement of the proposition. I have myself spent many a night in the localities during the ravages of the epidemic, and never felt that I was in any peril while I kept awake, and the best security for that is to keep in motion."

Sentiment of the Southern Delegates,—Radical Attempt to Create a Riot.—Philadelphia, Aug. 14.—The speech of Governor Orr last evening at the Democratic ratification meeting struck the key note for the alternates of the Southern members to day. It was so sensible, so dignified, so appropriate, that it is the theme of universal comment. Besides, it most effectually drew the fire of the Radicals, who have been prowling about the city with ears extended in the hope of hearing something out of which they could make capital.

Forney has done his best to get up a riot. His paper is full of incendiary and rebellious articles, but he has been unable thus far to produce even a dog fight.

MADAME E. F. THORNTON, the great English Astrologist, Clairvoyant and Psychometrician, who has astonished the scientific classes of the Old World, has now located herself at Hudson, N. Y. Madame Thornton possesses such wonderful powers of second sight, as to enable her to impart knowledge of the greatest importance to the single or married of either sex. While in a state of trance, she delineates the very features of the person you are to marry, and by the aid of an instrument of intense power, known as the Psychometrope, guarantees to produce a life-like picture of the future husband or wife of the applicant, together with date of marriage, position in life, leading traits of character, &c. This is no humbug, as thousands of testimonials can assert. She will send, when desired, a certified certificate, or written guarantee, that the picture is what it purports to be. By enclosing a small look of hair, and stating place of birth, age, disposition and complexion, and enclosing 50 cents and stamped envelope addressed to yourself, you will receive the picture and desired information by return mail. A New & Great Book in Medicine!

DR. MAGGIEL is the founder of a new Medical System! The quantitations, whose vast internal doses enfeeble the stomach and paralyzes the bowels, must give precedence to the man who restores health and appetite, with from one to two of his extraordinary Pills, and cures the most virulent sores with a box or so of his wonderful and all-healing Salve. These two great specifics of the Doctor are fast superseding all the stereotyped nostrums of the day. Extraordinary cures by Maggiel's Pills and Salve have opened the eyes of the public to the inefficiency of the (so called) remedies of others, and upon which people have so long blindly depended. Maggiel's Pills are not of the class that are swallowed by the dozen, and of which every box full taken creates an absolute necessity for another. One or two of Maggiel's Pills suffices to place the bowels in perfect order, tone the stomach, create an appetite, and render the spirits light and buoyant! There is no griping, and no reaction in the form of constipation. If the liver is affected, its functions are restored; and if the nervous system is feeble, it is invigorated. This last quality makes the medicines very desirable for the wants of delicate females. Ulcerous and eruptive diseases are literally extinguished by the disinfectant power of Maggie's Salve. In fact, it is here announced that Maggiel's Bilious, Dyspeptic and Diarrhea Pills cures where all others fail. While for Burns, Scalds, Chilblains, Cuts and all abrations of the skin Maggiel's Salve is infallible. Sold by J. MAGGIEL, 11 Pine street, New York, and all Druggists, at 25 cts per box. THE SENTINEL is an independent newspaper—a warm supporter of the Union and the Constitution, of Andrew Johnson, our magnanimous President and his policy, and devoted especially to the recuperation and prosperity of the South and North Carolina.

It labors to produce harmony, good feeling and equal rights among all the States, but will rebuke all unfounded expressions against the loyalty and integrity of the Southern people.

Special attention will be paid to the news and market departments.

Full proceedings of the Legislature and all important State papers appear in the Sentinel.

Its circulation is believed to be equal to any in the State, if not the largest. Its advertising patronage is large and growing.

The Daily and Weekly are now issued—the Semi Weekly will appear in a short time.

GENERAL REMARKS.

Revenue stamps may be used indiscriminately upon any of the matters or things enumerated in Schedule B, except proprietary and playing card stamps, for which a special use has been provided.

Postage stamps cannot be used in payment of the duty chargeable on instruments.

It is the duty of the maker of an instrument to affix and cancel the stamp required thereon. If he neglects to do so, the party for whose use it is made may stamp it before it it used; but in no case can it be legally used without a stamp. An instrument subject to stamp duty, but issued and used unstamped, prior to August 1, 1864, may be rendered valid by stamping it as required by section 163 of the act of June 30, 1864; if issued since, the case falls under section 158 of said act, as amended by the Act of March 3, 1865.

Suits are commenced in many States by other process than writ, viz: summons, warrant, publication, petition, &c., in which cases, these, as the original processes, severally require stamps.

The jurat of an affidavit, taken before a Justice of the Peace, Notary Public, or other officer duly authorized to take affidavits, is held to be a certificate, and subject to a stamp duty of five cents, except when taken in suitors legal proceedings.

Certificates of Loan, in which there shall appear any written or printed evidence of an amount of money to be paid on demand, or at a time designated are subject to stamp duty as "Promissory Notes."

The assignment of a mortgage is subject to the same stamp duty as that imposed upon the original instrument, that is to say for every sum of five hundred dollars, or any fractional part thereof, of the amount secured by the mortgage at the time of its assignment, there must be affixed a stamp or stamps denoting a duty of fifty cents.

When two or more persons join in the execution of an instrument, the stamp to which the instrument is liable under the law may be affixed and cancelled by either of them.

In conveyances of real estate, the law provides that the stamp affixed must answer to the value of the estate or interest conveyed.

No stamp is required on any warrant of attorney accompanying a bond or note when such bond or note has affixed thereto the stamp or stamps denoting the duty required; and whenever any bond or note is secured by mortgage, but one stamp duty is required on such papers, such stamp duty being the highest rate required for such instruments, or either of them. In such case a note or memorandum of the value or denomination of the stamp affixed should be made upon the margin or in the acknowledgment of the instrument which is not stamped.

Salisbury Brass Band,

Re organized first January 1866, on a larger scale, and of higher order of excellency than formerly, under the direction of its former tutor W. H. Neave, who was also chief music writer and Band Teacher in Gen. Lee's army; he will be assisted by his brother Ed. Neave, leader, during the entire late war, of Gen. Lee's best and most favorite band, viz: the 4th N. C. The band is composed of the best members of the old band, together with the best members of several of the fine bands trained in camp by Mr. Neave, who have moved to Salisbury from many points of the State to follow their vocations and continue the study and practice of music. The band will be a permanent institution for all state and festive purposes, and will equal the best anywhere in the world, if substained by those desiring a fine order of Brass and String music, if not, it must go down.

Mr. Neave is also agent for the celebrated Dodworth Brass instruments proved and warranted to him and by him. Also the most pleasing, effective and popular Piano music, selected with the utmost care by his friends H. B. Dodworth and Kent Botsford, of New York, for three classes, viz: the learners, medium, players and advanced musicians—no trash for either—music composed and arranged for any number of instruments, to order, for Parlor, Orchestral or Brass Band. Mere letters of enquiry for musical information, but with no view to business with Mr. Neave, or Band, must contain two Postage Stamps. Salisbury has been chosen for Musical Head Quarters because of its central position.

ANNUAL OF THE Ladies' Memorial Association.

For Confederate Dead Interred at Oakwood Cemetery, Richmond, Va.

TO THE PEOPLE OF THE SOUTH:

"The Ladies' Memorial Association for Confederate Dead of Oakwood," near Richmond, Virginia, was organized permanently on the 19th April, 1866, for the purpose of rescuing from oblivion the names and graves of the gallant Confederate Dead who sleep at Oakwood Cemetery.

This Cemetery, situated one mile east of the City, contains a larger number than any other in the South, including representative dead from every southern State.

The graves are in a neglected condition, the names of the occupants marked only by rude pieces of board carelessly and slightly put into the earth. The grounds are desolate and unenclosed.

The Common Council of the city of Richmond has undertaken the work of enclosing the Cemetery, and has made the requisite appropriation for that purpose.

The work of love, gratitude and duty, which the Association proposes for itself is simply this:

Firstly. To turf each grave and mark it with a wooden head-board, upon which is to be inscribed the name of the occupant, his State, regiment and company, and other information in regard to him.

Secondly. To lay out and decorate the grounds, and to redeem them from their present condition of utter cheerlessness and desolation. And

Thirdly. At some future day when the finances of the Association shall permit it, to replace the wooden head-boards with enduring marble, and to erect a handsome monument for each State of the South, commemorating its dead.

To effect these purposes it is necessary to appeal to the people of the South for pecuniary assistance. The Association is poor, the people of Richmond are poor, and the work to be done is for the honor and credit of the entire South. It would be an indelible shame and an ever present disgrace if, having the power to honor our dead, to perpetuate their names and memories, and to preserve and protect their graves, our people should suffer them to lie neglected and forgotten until the frail record of their names, death, and burial places are totally destroyed by decay, and the task rendered impossible. How many families throughout the South have representatives sleeping at Oakwood Cemetery? How many mothers, and sisters, and fathers, and brothers, and friends, would be soothed and gratified to know that their brave dead were honored, and their graves cared for and tended?—Who would not be shocked and pained to witness the present lamentable condition of these graves, and to see how rapidly the hand of Time is obliterating all traces and memorials of the gallant dead who died for us?

Could the people of the South look upon the lonely, desolate, and neglected graves, no appeal would be necessary. The silent rebuke of these forgotten heroes, would reach the hearts and consciencies of every Christian man and woman of the South.

The Association is not for a day or a year; it is not the passing fancy of an hour, or the ephemeral creature of a momentary impulse; it is permanently organized, with already two hundred and fifty active members. It will know no rest until its purposes are successfully and fully achieved. It will not fail, it cannot fail, it shall not fail, until the manhood of the South has lost its chivalry, and until its women have ceased to mourn for their children because "they are not."

In this work of piety and love the Association solemnly pledges its honor to the people of the South to apply, faithfully and economically, the funds which may be contributed.

Editors friendly to the purpose of this Association will confer a favor by copying into their papers this appeal.
